MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND MEMORANUM IN SUPPORT

Plaintiff, David Esrati, pro se, respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Rule 65 of the Ohio

Rules of Civil Procedure and Ohio Revised Code Section 121.22, for the issuance of a Temporary Restraining Order and a Preliminary Injunction ordering and enjoining Defendant Dayton City Commission, Jeffrey J. Mims, Dayton Board of Education, Mohamed Al-Hamdani, and or their assignees, known as the "School Closing Task Force" from touring Dayton Public School buildings in private on Tuesday February 6, 2018, which would be a violation of the Ohio Open Meetings Laws, as I stated in the pro se action filed Case 2018 CV 00593, Esrati, David vs Dayton City Commission et al, on 5 February, 2018 at 15:06:13 seeking injunctive relief.

This filing is in the public interest, and if we allow this body to continue to act in private, in light of the many notifications I've related to them that they must comply with the open meetings act, I ask the court to intercede immediately.

As this is a pro se filing, without the help of attorneys, in a matter of great public importance, I hope that my failings to file all the correct documentation don't stand in the way of forcing honest open meetings by this committee which is hell bent on deciding issues for the citizens of Dayton in private, without monitoring.

Respectfully submitted,

David Esrati
